NATION TANGOING INTO HARD TIMES IS THE OPINION

STANLEY W. FINCH STUDIES THE MENACE OF NEW DANCES FROM ECONOMIC VIEWPOINT.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—The country is tangoing itself into hard times. The authority for this statement is Stanley W. Finch, former United States special commissioner for suppression of the white slave traffic, now head of the National Social Welfare league.

Finch has been making a study of the menace of the new dances from an economic as well as a social viewpoint, and he has come to the conclusion that the present business depression can be blamed, to some extent, on the tango and the maxixe.

Finch has appeals from big business men from all parts of the country to start some sort of a movement to counteract the tango craze. These men have reported to him that the new dances are seriously crippling their business.

"The tango has taken such a grip upon our best employees that their capacity for work is cut in two," one man complained. "They go out and dance these new-fangled twists half the night; the next morning they have none of their former vigor; and the result is that the whole business suffers greatly because they are no longer able to turn out their accustomed amount of work."

"The tango is one of the greatest menaces of the country today," said Finch. "It is a new form of moral perversion. I see only one way of checking its ravages in our social and economic structures—by a country-wide campaign of publicity, showing up its extreme evils. In this connection it will be necessary to tone down our present style of women's dress, because the new fashions go hand in hand with the new dances."

"It is foolish to close up red light districts as long as such an evil as the tango exists. The closing of a red light district as a way of correcting immorality is like a small boy aiming a pop-gun at a big battleship."

Contrary to the common impression, the red light districts contain very few white slaves, Finch declares, and they are not nearly so important a feature of the immorality of the country as is usually supposed. The abolishment of a red light district only gives a city a respectable veneer, and in most cases enlarges its immorality problem. His contention is that vice is more easily dealt with when it is confined in a segregated district than when it is spread over an entire city. "I can point particularly to the case of Boston," he said. "The police report there each year: 'We are pleased to report that there are no houses of ill fame in our city.' But the fact is that prostitutes are permitted to congregate in cafes and other resorts, not in the classification of houses of ill fame, in larger numbers than you will find anywhere else in the United States. Some of Boston's downtown streets fairly swarm with street walkers at night."

Finch declared his recent observations in Chicago, Philadelphia, Kansas City and other large cities which have been following a more drastic policy in dealing with organized vice, had convinced him that the closing of red light districts was disappointing as a means of promoting higher morality. Education is the only remedy, Finch says.

Have you a "silent" musical instrument in your home? Unless it's anchored there by sentiment, let a "for sale" ad in the Bonanza find a buyer for it.

MEN AND GIRLS HURL WHEN AUTO STRIKES BUGGY

TURNS OVER AT A BAD TURN IN THE ROAD NEAR POMONA.

ONTARIO, June 25.—Miss Ruth Browning and Miss Marjory Middaugh, both of this city, were severely injured late last night when the car in which they were riding with Frank Bower and Dean Crew, of Upland, turned over at a bad turn in the road near Ganesha park, Pomona. Bower was pinned beneath the car, which flopped over when he put on the brakes. Crew was thrown onto the Pacific Electric tracks with Miss Middaugh and both were hurt. Miss Browning was pinned beneath the car.

The party was rushed to the Pomona hospital, where it was found no bones were broken, and were brought to their homes here at an early hour this morning. It is feared the young women may be suffering from spinal injuries.

Robert Stone, a local butcher, and a young woman with whom he was driving, were thrown to the pavement and their rig smashed to kindling wood, when an automobile driven by G. E. Guthrie, of Los Angeles, ran them down shortly before 10 o'clock last night.
